

Acceptable subject matter for Recertification for CANS and CPSN

Skin Cancers: BCC, SCC, Melanoma

Skin conditions: Psoriasis, rashes, lesions, atopic dermatitis, seborrhea, fungal rashes, acne, rosacea, moles, eczema

Hair loss (alopecia) and therapies

Skin side effects of therapies used in cancer care.

Cutaneous Paraneoplastic Disorders

Lower Extremity Arterial and Venous Ulcers

Conditions of the nails and feet

Hyperhidrosis

Hidradenitis suppurativa

Pemphigus

Scleroderma

Spider veins

Dermatologic emergencies: Necrotizing fasciitis, Steven Johnson syndrome, Staphylococcal toxic shock syndrome, Exfoliative erythroderma, Meningococemia, toxic epidermal necrolysis

Cosmetic conditions and treatments

Polycystic Ovarian Syndrome (PCOS): cutaneous manifestations including acne, hirsutism, and androgenic alopecia

Patient Safety Credits

*Each course is worth 1 (one) patient safety credit

- WB- Injection Safety: What Every Nurse Working in an ASC...
- Back to Basics: Sharps Safety
- Back to Basics: Preventing Surgical Fires
- Cyber Security Matters: How to Safeguard Patient Data
- Active Shooter on Campus
- Weaving a Culture of Safety Into the Fabric of Nursing
- Annual Compliance Safety Training
- Carle Annual Compliance and Safety Training
- Postoperative Pain Management – Focus on Safety
- Use of Reversal Options for Neuromuscular Blockade: Improving Patient Safety
- Misconceptions in Ambulatory Surgery: Is there value in neuromuscular blockade?
- Injection Safety: A System Approach
- Improving Surgical Patient Safety: Surgical and Anesthesia Perspectives on Enhanced Recovery
- Predicting Injurious Falls in the Hospital Setting: Implications for Practice
- Period PT Safety for Hypothermia, Hypoglycemia and Handoffs
- Sepsis the Body's Overreaction to Infection
- Quarterly QA Conference for Perioperative Services
- Getting to the Root of Medical Errors
- CMS Emergency Preparedness Requirements
- COVID-19 and Inpatient Rehabilitation Nursing Care: Lessons Learned and Implications for the Future
- ACLS
- National Patient Safety Goals (Nursing)
- Resuming Practice After COVID-19
- Heartcode BLS for Healthcare Providers Certification
- How Engaged is your Staff-Thinking Differently about Patient Safety
- Expert Perspective Series: Tips for Addressing Patient FAQs About COVID-19 Vaccines
- Child Abuse Renewal Course
- Prevention of Medical Errors
- I Have a Question! Hyaluron Pens
- Predicting Injurious Falls in the Hospital Setting: Implications for Practice
- Precision with Toxins: Live Cadaveric Facial Dissection & Treatment Correlations
- Infection control

- Safety- What You Need to Know When Injecting Dermal Fillers
- Malpractice Plastic Surgical Case Review: Protecting Patients, Protecting Yourself
- NY Mandated Infection Control for Health Care Professionals
- Top 10 Patient Safety Concerns for 2019
- Minimizing and Managing Complications in Aesthetics
- Vaping and Lung Injury Recharacterized in Older Adults
- Advanced Cardiovascular Life Support
- Recognizing Impairment in the Workplace
- Safe and Effective Prescription of Controlled Substances
- Interpersonal Violence - Intimate Partner Violence, Elder Abuse and Child Abuse
- Prevention and Control of Seasonal Influenza with Vaccines
- Bloodborne Pathogens Training
- Foundations of Laser & Light
- Office based Laser Safety Officer Course
- Anaphylaxis
- OSHA Training Course
- HIPAA Training Course
- Hand and Hygiene for Healthcare
- Fire Safety
- Nuances in Injectables
- Microcannula Patient Safety Class
- National Patient Safety Goals
- Medscape Patient Safety
- Overcoming Barriers to Assessing Older Driver Safety in Clinical Practice (SAFETY CREDIT)
- Optimizing Opioid Safety and Efficacy
- SARS CoV-2. Guidelines for Shielding Frontline Nurses
- Extrinsic and Behavioral Fall Risk Factor in People with Parkinson's Disease
- Reducing Inpatient Falls
- Know the Right Tool for the Job - Discover the Right Filler for the Right Place